INDEX

A

Acts, The "We" Passages in, note on, 724–728.
Aitken's, J., Book of Job, noticed, 576.
Allen, E. B., article by, 443–459.
Ashmore's, S. G., Classics and Modern Training, noticed, 197.
Avery's, E. M., History of the United States and Its People (Vols. I. and II.), noticed, 383.

B

Balaam, article on, by H. M. Whitney, 150–163; general recognition of the Divine, 150; prevalence of disobedience, 152; danger of dallying with temptation, 155; unbalanced views of right and wrong, 157; sin the greatest evil, 161.
Barton, W. E., articles by, 277–283, 385–426.
Bascom, J., articles by, 125–149, 335–351.
Bates, W. H., article by, 71–84.
Bernard Shaw among the Prophets, Is, article on, by W. C. Rhoades, 528–541; pretensions of Bernard Shaw, 529; analysis of his work, 531; a manhater, 534; his moral earnestness a failure, 537; does not inspire hope, 538; his influence unwholesome, 541.
Bewer, J. A., book review by, 188.
Biblia Hebraica, noticed, 377.
Bishop, S. E., article by, 510–517.
Blackmar's, F. W., Elements of Sociology, noticed, 195.
Bliss's, F. J., Development of Palestine Exploration, noticed, 569.
Books Received, 758.
British People, A Psychology of the, article on, by C. W. Super, 664–687; national psychology possible, 665; Germans and French contrasted, 666; Slavic peculiarities, 667; English peculiarities, 668; trial by jury, 669; respect for law, 671; characteristic English words, 673; education, 674; religion, 676; idea of responsibility, 679; seriousness of, 681; art, 685.
British Theology and Philosophy, notes on, 167–172.

C

Campbell, G., a poem by, 201.
Capen, E. W., article by, 703–723.
Causes and Reasons, article on, by J. Bascom, 125–149; error of monism, 125; definition of causes and reasons, 126; Socrates not an inductive reasoner, 128; deduction rational, 129; induction empirical, 130; estimate of Herbert Spencer, 132; evolution a mere assumption, 133; design in nature essential, 135; vagaries of evolutionists, 137; wisdom at the heart of the world, 139; vagaries of sociology, 141; harmony of the physical and spiritual, 145; narrowness of induction, 147; limitations of Higher Criticism, 148.
Centennial, The Significance of the Haystack, article on, by E. W. Capen, 703–723.
Chadwick's, S., Humanity and God, noticed, 193.
Chamberlin, T. C., Geology, noticed, 744.
Chinese, Religion among the, article on, by G. D. Wilder, 85–117; variety of religions in China, 85; Confucianism is a religion, 86; but not for the common people, 88; nobility of Confucian ethics, 89; exquisite manners of the Chinese, 90; love of their native soil, 91; high standard of sexual morality, 91; influence of ancestor worship, 93; tablet worship, 94; religious intolerance of the government, 96; influence of Buddhism and Taoism, 97; power of Buddhism, 98; prevalence of polytheism, 99; secret societies, 100; enumeration of the gods, 101; holy seasons, 103; holy places, 105; worship of heaven, 107; funeral services, 108; burial rites, 109; faith in a future life, 111; absence of prayer, 113; the name of God, 114; commendable things in the Chinese, 116.

Chrysostom the Preacher, article on, by H. C. Sperbeck, 518–527; early history, 518; preparation of sermons, 520; use of Scripture, 521; of nature, literature, and human nature, 522; application of the truth, 523; effects of his preaching, 526.

Church of Christ, noticed, 192.

Clarke's, W. N., Use of the Scriptures in Theology, noticed, 379.

Clement's, E. W., Christianity in Modern Japan, noticed, 193.

Commons', J. R., Trade Unionism and Labor Problems, noticed, 196.

Conybeare's, F. C., Selections from the Septuagint, noticed, 750.

Crane's, A. M., Right and Wrong Thinking, noticed, 756.

Critical Notes, 724–740.

D

Dead Hand, The, note on, 165–167.

Democracy, The Growth of, article on, by W. E. C. Wright, 118–124; false ideas of liberty, 118; distorted views, 120; modern uprising of the people, 121; the democracy of art, 123; democracy without socialism, 124.

Demoniacal Possession. See "Powers of Darkness."

Dennison, W., book reviews by, 197, 199.

Dickinson, E., book review by, 198.

Doctrine and Criticism of Scripture, Luther's, article on, by K. Fullerton, 1–34, 284–299.

Dods', M., Bible, noticed, 190.

Dunning's, W. A., History of Political Theories from Luther to Montesquieu, noticed, 194.

E

Eaches', O. P., Hebrews, James and I. and II. Peter, noticed, 576.

Easter Prelude, by G. Campbell, 201.

Elliott, A. S., article by, 487–509.

English Lyric Poetry, History of, article on, by T. W. Hunt, 688–702; characteristics of lyric verse, 688; forms of the lyric, 690; Elizabethan lyrics, 694; the new poetry, 697; competition of prose, 698; contemporary English lyric verse, 701.

English Prose, The Historical Development of, article on, by T. W. Hunt, 42–56; prose later than verse, 42; Old English prose, 43; Modern English Prose, 44; prose of the sixteenth century, 46; of the seventeenth, 48; of the eighteenth, 51; of the nineteenth, 55.

F

Fear, The Place of, among the Motives of Religion, article on, by H. M. Whitney, 227–243; objections to the use of fear, 227; the motive of fear in nature, 228; in every-day life, 229; the evils of prophesying smooth things, 231; fear a legitimate motive, 233; fear of penalty not degrading, 237; origin of present sentimentality, 240.

Fehlandt's, A. F., Century of Drink Reform in the United States, noticed, 574.
Fercken's, G. J., Divine Philosophy, noticed, 756.
Ferries', G., Growth of Christian Fa th, noticed, 571.
Fitzpatrick's, F. B., Life of Christ for Children, noticed, 192.
Flower's, F. A., Edwin McMasters Stanton, noticed, 380–383.
Fullerton, K., articles by, 1–34, 284–299, 577–634; book reviews by, 375, 377, 576.

G

Godbey's, J. E., Foundations of Faith, noticed, 191.
Graves's, H. C., Lectures on Homiletics, noticed, 756.
Greene's, M. L., Development of Religious Liberty in Connecticut, noticed, 573.
Green's, S. G., Cyclopedic Handbook to the Bible, noticed, 190.
Greene, W. B., article by, 542–557.
Greene's, W. B. Christian Doctrine, noticed, 573.
Gwatkin's, H. M., Knowledge of God, noticed, 746; The Eye for Spiritual Things, noticed, 754.

H

Haldane's, E. S., Descartes, noticed, 560.
Harper's, W. R., Critical and Exegetical Commentary on Amos and Hosea, noticed, 188; Priestly Element in the Old Testament, noticed, 375.
Haystack Centennial, The Significance of the, article on, by E. W. Capen, 703–723; commemorates a focal event, 704; biography of Mills, 705; his companions, 706; pledge, 707; earlier missionary interest, 710; founding of Andover, 712; petition to the General Association, 713; missionaries ordained, 714; principles of the movement, 715; instructions, 716; methods of work, 718; spirit of the movement, 719; influence of the movement, 722.
Holy Spirit, The Authority of the, article on, by A. E. Thomson, 427–442; personality of the Holy Spirit, 427; mystery of the Trinity, 432; the many-sided work of the Spirit, 435; unity of Christ and the Spirit, 436; office of the Spirit in inspiration, 437; importance of the Old Testament, 439; office of the Spirit in revivals, 440; results of being led by the Spirit, 441.
Hoskins's, F. E., Jordan Valley and Petra, noticed, 565–569.
Houghton's, L. S., Telling Bible Stories, noticed, 380.
Howland, S. W., note by, 729–732.
Hunt, T. W., articles by, 42–56, 688–702.
Hunt's, T. W., Literature, noticed, 756.

J

Jordan's, L. H., Comparative Religion, noticed, 573.

K

Kentucky Mountaineer, The, article on, by A. S. Elliott, 487–509; barrenness of the Kentucky mountains, 487; suspicion of foreigners, 489; picturesqueness of the country, 491; physical characteristics of the people, 492; social customs, 493; its great heroes, 494; love of country, 495; individualism, 497; chivalry, 498; outlawry, 500; indifference to education, 501; independence of the mountaineer, 503, egotism, 505; hospitality, 506; latent capacity, 508.
Knowling's, R. J., Testimony of St. Paul to Christ, noticed, 752.

L

Ladd, G. T., book review by, 183–188.
Ladd's, G. T., Philosophy of Reason, noticed, 364–369.

Lea's, H. C., History of the Inquisition of Spain, noticed, 741.

Lessing's Philosophy of Religion, article on, by J. Lindsay, 653–663; evolution character of religion, 653; Lessing too intellectual, 654; criticised Lutheran orthodoxy, 655; believed in the rationality of revelation, 657; emphasized natural religion, 658; exalted individuality, 659; held to determinism, 660, always self-consistent, 662.

Libbey's, W., Jordan Valley and Petra, noticed, 565–569.

Liberty's Limitations, note on, 164.

Lindsay, J., notes by, 167–176; book reviews by, 369–374, 558–562; article by, 653–663.

Lindsay's, T. M., History of the Reformation, noticed, 742.

Lord's Prayer. See "The Pearl of Prayers."

Luther's Doctrine and Criticism of Scripture, article on, by K. Fullerton, 1–34, 284–299; Scripture superseded by ecclesiastical tradition, 1; divine powers arrogated by the hierarchy, 2; Luther's spiritual experience, 2; its critical significance, 3; the material and the formal principle of the Reformation, 4; the Christocentric character of Scripture, 8; its perspicuity, 9; the grammatico-historical principle of exegesis, 9; Luther's dominant principle, 12; the Testimonium Spiritus Sancti, 14; Luther's criticism of Scripture, 18; his use of reason, 20; his opinion of James, 23; neglect of historical arguments, 24; recognition of the human element in Scripture, 26; his views of the errancy of Scripture, 29; errancy and inspiration, 33; his views of inspiration, 285; later reasons for emphasizing the formal authority of Scripture, 286; increasing hostility to reason, 287; Luther's inconsistencies, 290; insistence upon literal interpretation, 292; reconciliation of Luther's inconsistencies, 295.

Lyric Poetry, English, article on, by T. W. Hunt, 688–702.

M

Matheson's, G., Representative Men of the New Testament, note on, 170–172; Rests by the River, noticed, 558–560.

McFadyen's, J. E., Introduction to the Old Testament, noticed, 377.

McKim's, R. H., Problem of the Pentateuch, noticed, 570.

Mead's, C. M., Irenic Theology, noticed, 183–188.

Merrins, E. M., articles by, 300–324, 460–486.

Metcalf's, M. M., Outline of the Theory of Organic Evolution, noticed, 177–183.

Miller, H. A., article by, 352–363.

Miracle, The Relation of the, to Nature, article on, by W. B. Greene, 542–557; miracle only one form of the Supernatural, 542; miracle and special providence, 544; not a question of the amount of power, 545; supposition of angelic agency, 546; miracle not merely a higher law, 547; miracle more than a foreordained event, 548; miracle an act of creation, 550; "mediate miracle a misnomer," 551; "relative miracle a misnomer," 552; miracle more than spiritual energy, 553; miracle not disorderly, 553; miracle more than a sign, 554; number of miracles, exaggerated, 556.

Mountaineer, The Kentucky, article on, by A. S. Elliott, 487–509.

Mullins', E. Y., Why is Christianity True, noticed, 572.

N

Noah's Log-Book, Have We, article on, by S. E. Bishop, 510–517; importance of picture-writing, 512; sections of the log-book, 513; the argument in detail, 514; influence upon the interpretation, 516.

Notices of Recent Publications, 177–200, 364–384, 558–576, 741–759.

O

Orient, The Outlook in the, article on, by E. B. Allen, 443–459; modern improvements in the Orient, 443; peculiarities of the Orient, 445; influence of Islam, 446; doctrines of Islam, 447; religious attitude of the Turk, 449; England's influence in Egypt, 450; influence of missionaries, 452; movements in Palestine, 454; enchantment of travel in the Holy Land, 457.
Orr's, J., Problem of the Old Testament, noticed, 374.

P

Patrick, Saint, the Apostle of Ireland, article on, by W. H. Bates, 71–84; early history, 71; entrance into Ireland, 73; character of his work, 75; doctrines preached, 77; things common to Protestants and Romanists, 78; the invasion of 1154, 80; the oldest Irish literature, 83.
Patrick's, W., James the Lord's Brother, noticed, 752.
Peake's, A. S., Job, title given, 576.
Philosophy of Religion, Lessing's, article on, by J. Lindsay, 653–663.
Poetry, English Lyric, article on, by T. W. Hunt, 688–702.
Politics and Popular Delusions, note on, 735–740.
Potwin, L. S., article by, 35–41; note by, 732–735.
Powers of Darkness, articles on, by E. M. Merrins, 300–324, 460–486; prevalence of the belief in demoniacal possession, 300; facts denied by some, 302; perhaps limited to certain periods, 304; persistence of the belief, 305; scientific explanation of the facts, 307; somnambulism, 308; epilepsy, 308; reversion to an earlier personality, 309; transformation of personality, 311; multiple personality, 312; development of consciousness, 315; limitations of self-consciousness, 316; subconscious cerebration, 317; double consciousness, 318; modern epidemics of the malady, 321; the dancing mania, 323; theory of hysteria, 460; different forms of palsy and paralysis, 463; disorders of special senses, 464; involuntary speech, 465; striking illustrations, 467; knowledge of demoniacs, 469; the Gadarene demoniac, 471; definition of the malady, 475; confusion of terms, 477; demons not devils, 479; influences fostering demonianism, 481; demoniacal possession a moral disorder, 483; the trouble deep-seated, 484.
Pearl of Prayers, The, article on, by C. H. Richards, 635–652; comprehensiveness of, 635; everybody's prayer, 636; need of prayer, 637; prayer more than petition, 639; method of prayer, 641; spirit of prayer, 642; power of prayer, 645; summary, 652.
Prose, English, Historical Development of, article on, by T. W. Hunt, 42–56.
Psychology of the British People, article on, by C. W. Super, 664–687.
Pulpit, The True Vocation of the, note on, 173–175.

R

Race Problem, Some Psychological Considerations in the, article on, by H. A. Miller, 352–363; race problem in America, 352; racial psychology, 353; evolution inapplicable to man, 357; difficulties surrounding the negro, 358; inductive examination of the psychology of the whites, Indians, and negroes, 359; racial psychological difference small, 362.

Rankin, H. W., article by, 244–263.
Raven's, J. H., Old Testament Introduction, noticed, 376.
Reasons, Causes and, article on, by J. Bascom, 125–149.
Reed's, R. C., History of the Presbyterian Churches of the World, noticed, 193.
Religion among the Chinese, article on, by G. D. Wilder, 85–117.
Religion, Lessing's Philosophy of, article on, by J. Lindsay, 653–663.
Religion, Place of Fear among the Motives of, article on, by H. M. Whitney, 227–243.
Religious Outlook, Present, article on, by H. M. Scott, 325–334; tendency toward church union, 325; movement towards reforms, 326; Romanism being leavened, 328; religious coldness in Germany, 329; religion in German universities, 330; the outlook in Turkey and Egypt, 332.
Rhoades, W. C., article by, 528–541.
Richards, C. H., article by, 635–652.
Richards's, T. C., Samuel J. Mills, noticed, 574.
Roberts, P., article by, 203–226.
Robinson's, P., Writings of St. Francis of Assisi, noticed, 563.
Ropes's, J. H., Apostolic Age in the Light of Modern Criticism, noticed, 753.
Rosenau's, W., Jewish Biblical Commentators, noticed, 750.

S

Salisbury's, R. D., Geology, noticed, 745.
Samaritans, The History and Religion of the, article on, by Jacob, son of Aaron, 385–426; introductory note, 385; dedication, 389; analysis of the entire work, 390; the Samaritans the true Israelites, 393; Gerizim the original holy place, 393; the succession of the priesthood, 394; the advent of sorcery into Israel, 395; the apostasy of Eli, 397; the disappearance of the tabernacle, 399; Eli and his sons, 399; details of the hiding of the tabernacle, 400; the temple at Shiloh, 402; Samuel the sorcerer, 403; the war with the Philistines, 404; the monarchy under Saul, 405; the reign of David and the removal of Eli's ark, 408; Solomon's idolatries, 409; the reign of Rehoboam, 411; the conquest of Jeroboam, 413; the false claims of Jeroboam, 414; the destruction of Jerusalem, 415; the Babylonian exile, 415; the immigrants to Israel, and their hardships, 416; the return under Cyrus, 418; Zerubbabel and Sanballat, 419; changes in Jewish customs, 421; the return of the northern tribes, 421; hostility between Jews and Samaritans, 422; Artaxerxes and Esther, 423; the inventions of Ezra, 423; two pronunciations of YHWH, 424; the modern Hebrew of the Jewish writers, 424; diminution of the Samaritans, 425; power of Islam, 425; present status of the Samaritan people, 426.
Sanday's, W., Criticism of the Fourth Gospel, noticed, 372–374.
Schultz's, H., Outlines of Christian Apologetics, noticed, 378.
Scientific Authority, article on, by J. F. Springer, 57–70; limitations of, 57; uncorroborated, 59; the question of veracity, 63; logical competence, 65; corroborated scientific authority, 68.
Scotland, The Ecclesiastical Situation in, note on, 175.
Scott, H. M., article by, 325–334; book review by, 563.
Scripture, Luther's Doctrine and Criticism of, article on, by K. Fullerton, 1–34, 284–299.

Sennacherib, The Invasion of, article on, by K. Fullerton, 577–634; recent monographs upon, 577; apparent discrepancies, 579; attempted explanations, 580; Assyrian account self-consistent, 583; occasion of the campaign, 585; Assyrian account chronological, 585; Assyrian and biblical accounts irreconcilable, 587; efforts to harmonize, 589; Meinhold's views criticised, 591; chronology of Rab-shakeh's expedition, 594; difficulties in the biblical story, 596; unsatisfactory theories, 599; theory of two campaigns, 608; criticism of Winckler, 612; importance of Lachish, 617; Assyria's Waterloo was in the second campaign, 620; notes, 621.

Shields, Philosophy of Charles Woodruff, article on, by H. W. Rankin, 244–263; importance of Dr. Shields' work, 244; analysis of his work, 245; his first essay, 248; a pioneer in his field, 249; theology a science of religious facts, 252; the Bible a collection of facts, 255; Christian theory of God, 256; Herbert Spencer's weakness, 257; the world a revelation from God, 259; the Bible and nature in agreement, 260.

Sidgwick's, H., Lectures on the Philosophy of Kant, note on, 167–170.

Smith, J., obituary notice of, 760.

Sperbeck, H. C., article by, 518–527.

Springer, J. F., article by, 57–70.

Storey's, F. D., Higher Criticism Cross-Examined, noticed, 571.

Super, C. W., article by, 664–687.

T

Tchaikovsky's, P., Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, noticed, 198.

Thomson, A. E., article by, 427–442.

TreFethren, E. B., note by, 724–728.

U

Unemployed in London, The, article on, by J. Bascom, 335–351; large number, 335; the labor problem, both economic and ethical, 336; fallacy of the Malthusian theory, 339; fallacies of socialism, 340; unwise charity, 341; importance of personal independence, 343; impossible demands of labor, 344; objections to outdoor aid, 345; evils of accumulated capital, 347; violence of labor reforms excusable, 349.

Union of the Congregational, United Brethren, and Methodist Protestant Churches, Proposed, article on, by L. C. Warner, 264–276; purposes of the Council, 264; difficulties to be overcome, 265; Declaration of Faith, 269; principles of polity, 270; ministerial standing, 273; statistics, 275.

United Church, Proposed Polity of the, article on, by W. E. Barton, 277–283; constitution of the National Conference, 277; innovations in the Congregational National Council, 279; report of the Chicago Committee, 282.

United Mine Workers and Christian Ethics, article on, by P. Roberts, 203–226; number of United Mine Workers, 203; nature of miners' union, 205; increase of the coal industry, 206; necessity of the miners' union, 209; its benevolent work, 210; its aims, 212; a living wage, 213; hazards of coal-mining, 216; reasons for the eight-hour day, 218; a demand for arbitration, 219; future of the miners' union, 222; dangers to it, 224; duties of the general public, 225.

Upton, C. S., Dr. Martineau's Philosophy, noticed, 369–372.

Urquhart's, J., Inspiration and Accuracy of the Holy Scriptures, noticed, 189.

V

Van Dyke's, H., Essays in Application, noticed, 384.
Vincent's, M. R., Divine Comedy of Dante, noticed, 564.

W

Walker's, D., The Gift of Tongues, noticed, 754.
Walker's, W. L., Christian Theism and a Spiritual Monism, noticed, 748.
Warner, L. C., article by, 264–276.
Weir's, I., Greek Painters' Art, noticed, 199.
Weiss's, B., Commentary on the New Testament, noticed, 750.
Whitney, H. M., articles by, 150–163, 227–243.
Wiener's, H. M., Studies in Biblical Law, noticed, 748.
Wilder, G. D., article by, 85–117.
Will, The Simplicity of, article on, by L. S. Potwin, 35–41; definition of human will, 35; freedom of the will, 37; deliberation not essential to freedom, 38; two objects of choice not necessary, 38; spontaneousness the only necessity, 39; the will acts as a unit, 40; an act of free-will is not causeless, 41.
Will, The Simplicity of, note on, 729–735.
Williams's, T. R., The Evangel of the New Theology, noticed, 755.
Wood's, N. R., Witness of Sin, noticed, 753.
Wright, G. F., notes by, 164–167, 735–740.
Wright, W. E. C., article by, 118–124; book reviews by, 194–197.